

the future we want → for all

The role of Education, Science and Culture

more information
Contact : Rosinta Hutauruk at rp.hutauruk@unesco.org
jakarta@unesco.org

JOIN US . . .

Live in Bandung or online in the inter-active event:

The Future We Want for All - The Role of Education, Science and Culture

Organized by The UN in Indonesia, ITB and INHERENT

Where?

- ITB Bandung, Aula Timur, or
- At your university using the INHERENT Network or,
- Via live streaming : <http://streaming.dikti.go.id/stream/>

When?

9 October 2012, 10.00 - 12.00 am (Jakarta time)

What?

Keynote lecturer:

UNESCO's Regional Science Bureau Director-Hubert Gijzen will provide an overview of the main global challenges and the outlook for the Post-2015 Agenda for international cooperation and development. The keynote speaker will introduce the topic by providing answers to questions like What are the main global challenges? Why is it urgent?, and what can be done about it?

Panelists:

Three panelists will focus on the role of education, science and culture in building a sustainable society. The topics they will address include:

1. Educating for a Sustainable Future

Panelist: Mr. Anwar Alsaïd

2. Sciences for Sustainability

Panelist: Mr. Charaf Ahmimed & Mr. Shabaz Khan

3. Culture for Sustainable Development

Panelist: Mr. Masanori Nagaoka