Dear KUT partners

Thank you very much for your academic cooperation as Kochi University of Technology's partner university over the years. We would like to announce you that KUT calls for applicants of its scholarship program. Please find the most updated admission guideline below.

<Special Scholarship Program>

The Special Scholarship Program is a 3-year English-medium doctoral program designed for highly capable doctoral students. Successful applicants are entitled to receive following benefits:

1. Exempted from all the required student fees
2. 150,000 yen per month for research project work
3. 150,000 yen for travel and initial living cost (given only to international applicants who are living outside Japan)

The Special Scholarship Program recruits excellent doctoral students to take part in the research projects listed at:

Application Deadline for October 2016 enrollment and April 2017 enrollment: March 18th 2016

We would be grateful if you could introduce our scholarship programs to your faculty and students. We really hope to receive applications from excellent students of your university.

<Campuses>

Kochi University of Technology moved its School of Management to the Eikokuji campus in Kochi City from the main campus in Kami City in April, 2015. At the same time, the School of Management emerged reorganized and transformed, newly established as the School of Economics & Management. Despite the move, however, the program for first year students will be conducted at the main Kami campus.

Main Kami Campus:

School of Systems Engineering

School of Environmental Science and Engineering

School of Information

School of Economics & Management (for first year students)

Eikokuji Campus:

School of Economics & Management (for second to fourth year undergraduates and graduate students)

<On-campus accommodation “International House”>

KUT opened its on-campus accommodation called “International House” in Kami campus in October 2013 to provide a high quality research and study environment for both overseas and Japanese students. International students can enjoy this living-learning environment while developing a better understanding of Japanese culture through daily life with Japanese students.

Please find the details in the enclosed leaflet.

*International students at Eikokuji campus will also be offered similar housing.

We sincerely hope you find this informative and helpful to find the best option for your students.

Yours truly,

Shinichiro SAKIKAWA
