Sub: Government of India scholarships for pursuing higher studies in India

Dear Prof. Ainun Na'im,

I am pleased to inform you that, as in previous years, the Government of India have announced scholarships to Indonesian students/researchers for pursuing higher studies in Universities in India. The scholarships are offered through the General Cultural Scholarship Scheme (GCSS) administered by the Indian Council for Cultural Relations (ICCR), New Delhi for the academic year 2013-2014.

2. A copy of the Application Booklet, which also contains guidelines for the students for filling in the forms, as also a Scholarship Information Brochure, is enclosed. It may kindly be noted that the University courses in India generally commence in June/July or later.

3. Scholarships offered in listed Universities are at the Under-Graduate, Post-Graduate and doctoral levels and cover subjects in the arts, architecture, literature, commerce and science. Degree courses in engineering, pharmacy and agriculture, and doctoral and post-doctoral courses in various disciplines can also be pursued.

4. The scholarship covers all tuition fees and other mandatory fees, besides a monthly living allowance and annual contingent grant, accommodation charges, and other benefits, including expenses on medical treatment and study tours. However, air passages to India and back are excluded. Terms and Conditions of the ICCR Scholarships are detailed in the enclosed Scholarship Information Brochure.

5. Students admitted to Indian universities under ICCR scholarships will be endorsed Student Visas for the entire duration of their study on gratis basis and the processing of such visas normally take only two days. However, students seeking admission to M.Phil, Ph.D and higher studies will require Research Visas, processing of which may take a little longer period.

6. The medium of instruction is English and applications from only those candidates who have a reasonable good command over spoken and written English may be forwarded. The Embassy will conduct an English language test on 28 February, 2013 for those who have been short listed from among all applicants after scrutiny of their documents.

7. The application forms may be filled in as per the guidelines enclosed and forwarded to the Education Wing of the Embassy at Jl. HR Rasuna Said, Kav.S1, Kuningan, Jakarta Selatan latest by Friday, February 15, 2013.

8. You are requested to kindly widely publicize the offer among interested candidates in the Indonesian universities and educational institutions.

9. You may also like to nominate some meritorious students for award of scholarships, who may submit their applications with your recommendation letter.

Yours sincerely,

[Gurjit Singh]

ICCR Scholarships for studying in Universities in India

SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION BROCHURE

To be read in conjunction with the Scholarship Application Forms & Guidelines

The ICCR scholarships provide opportunities for Indonesian students to study at the higher educational institutions in India.

Under its General Cultural Scholarship Scheme (GCSS), ICCR awards, through the Embassy of India in Jakarta, twenty (20) scholarships to meritorious students from Indonesia for studying in Universities and Colleges in India.

The scholarships are for full-time study in one of the course of study at one of the participating Universities and other Institutions of Higher Learning listed in the Application Form.

Eligibility criteria are set out on page-2 of this Brochure.

Applications from all students, who fulfill the eligibility criteria and who possess basic working knowledge of the English language, are invited.

Scholarships are for study at undergraduate and post-graduate levels, including Master and Doctoral programmes. Students applying for the award of scholarship must pass the English Proficiency Test to be conducted at the Embassy of India in Jakarta.

The closing date for applications is Friday, 15 February 2013

Applications should be submitted to the Education Wing, Embassy of India,

Fax: (62-21) 520 4160 & 526 5622
E-mail: edujkt@net-zap.com or ssedu@net-zap.com

WHO CAN APPLY?

To be eligible to apply for ICCR scholarship, you must:

- be an Indonesian national;
- be usually and currently resident in Indonesia;
- not have permanent resident status for any other country;
- be a minimum of 18 years of age at the time of commencement of scholarship in India;
- not currently hold a scholarship from ICCR under GCSS;
- not availed of a scholarship from ICCR under GCSS;
- priority will be given to candidates who have not had scholarships and have not been awarded scholarship previously to study in India;
- be applying to commence a new course of study at a level higher than your current qualification;
- be able to take up the scholarship in the year in which it is offered (2013); and
- for civil servants, be endorsed by your sponsoring organization, i.e. Ministry, Department, statutory authority, agency.

Specifically:

- all applicants must have very good English language skills;
- to verify the English language competency, an English Proficiency Test will be conducted at the Embassy of India in Jakarta on February 28, 2013;
- only those candidates whose Application Forms and Documents have been found to be in order will be eligible for appearing in the English Proficiency Test;

- applicants for studying performing arts would need to submit video/audio cassettes of their recorded performances.

In addition, all applicants must:

- be committed to return to Indonesia upon finishing their course of study

Applications from candidates who are not eligible will not be considered

CHOOSING A COURSE OF STUDY

In the Application Form, the students are required to indicate at least three courses, in the order of preference, which they would like to pursue in Indian educational institutions.

Students are also required to indicate at least three Universities/Institution of Higher Learning, in the order of preference, at which they would like to study.

A list of participating Universities (total ²⁰²~~189~~) is included at Appendix-5 to the Scholarship Application Form.

When considering a course, students must ensure that they possess requisite qualifications for the course which they choose to study.

Students must also ensure that the chosen course of study is a structured course of study at the University of their preference.

For selecting the course of study or the University, students may refer to the 'Universities Handbook of India' available at the Embassy of India in Jakarta or browse the official website of the concerned University.

Students may also apprise themselves of the requirements expected to be fulfilled by the Foreign Students at the concerned University.

Doctoral and Post-graduate (including Masters) applicants should generally choose an area consistent with previous studies they have completed.

It may be noted that Indian Universities/educational institutions are autonomous and independent and hence have their own eligibility criteria. Forwarding of applications is thus not a guarantee of admission. Final acceptance is up to the University concerned. A scholarship is awarded only when admission is confirmed by the concerned University/ICCR.

NOTE ON RESTRICTIONS ON ICCR SCHOLARSHIPS:

- There will be no scholarship awarded for medicine (MBBS), dentistry (BDS), nursing and other courses related to medicine during 2013-14.

NOTIFICATION OF THE AWARD OF SCHOLARSHIP

Students who are awarded scholarships will be notified through a formal mail as soon as their admissions are confirmed in a University in India.

Any request for change in course of study or University, once admission of a scholar is confirmed and the scholar has arrived to join the course, would not be entertained.

Pre-departure and Visa Application

Immediately upon being advised of award of scholarship, the concerned student must complete his travel document (passport) and also make booking for travel to India.

He should thereafter approach the Education Wing of the Embassy of India in Jakarta, which will assist successful candidates with application for visa. Visa will be provided on 'gratis' basis for the entire duration of the course.

All students admitted to M.Phil. and higher course (Ph.D. or post-doctoral) would require 'Research Visa' instead of 'Student Visa'. The concerned students may ascertain the requirements and procedure for making applications for the Research Visa. The processing time for 'Research Visa' is may take up to one month, provided documentation has been completed satisfactorily.

Before leaving for India, all awardees will be fully briefed about the living conditions in India, on the details of scholarships, the type and duration of the course to which he/she is admitted, course.

Once in India, the student would have to go for AIDS test before the admission is finally given to overseas scholars. In case, any of the students is found HIV positive in India, the scholar will be repatriated immediately and the ICCR would not bear any expenses on this account.

Scholarship Terms and Conditions

The ICCR scholarships awarded under GCSS are fully-funded scholarships.

However, the international airfare from Indonesia to the place of study in India and back has to be borne by the students themselves.

In case of scholars pursuing science courses, the expenditure on laboratory chemicals and other related incidental charges are also to be borne by the scholars themselves.

Student visa, valid for the entire duration of the study, would be provided on 'gratis' basis.

Under the scholarships, the following are provided/covered:

Tuition Fee / Other compulsory fee	Full academic fees and other fees that are compulsory for all international students undertaking the course

FAMILY ENTRY:

Families must meet the Government of India immigration requirements.

Scholarship awardees may bring their immediate families (spouse and children) to India at their own cost, after awardees have joined their respective course of studies and settled into their formal academic courses. Government of India does not provide any financial or other support for the dependents of the students. Students must contact the Embassy of India in Jakarta to ascertain the current requirements for family entry/visit to India.

Important Note:

Students awarded the scholarship must give an undertaking to complete their course of study in India. In case, any student returns prematurely to Indonesia without completing his/her course of study, the student would be liable to reimburse all expenses incurred on tuition fee, stipend, HRA etc. to ICCR.
